Maldon Boat Cruise with a Cream Tea, Essex

Thursday 16th July, Route R: 8:30am – 7pm

Spend the morning exploring Maldon's charming High Street, independent shops, and beautiful riverside, with time to enjoy lunch at one of the many local cafés or pubs. In the afternoon, step aboard the S.B. Hydrogen, a magnificent Thames sailing barge built in 1906 and celebrating 120 years of history next year. Relax on a two-hour cruise along the scenic River Blackwater, savour a delicious cream tea, and enjoy the chance to chat with the friendly crew about the vessel's fascinating past – the perfect blend of heritage, relaxation, and Essex charm.

£75 Non Travel Club Members • £70 Travel Club Members • £65 Children

*Price includes 2hour cruise & cream tea, and service of a courier.
Please note: There is no formal dining on board. Food is served from a central buffet table in the saloon and guests are free to take their plates up on deck or sit on pew/bench seating below. However, guests can't see out from below decks. Sitting on deck is also casual, with plenty of areas for guests to find somewhere to sit. We strongly recommend that guests wear sensible, non-slip shoes.*
